18 October 1949

1. All equipment, including billeting equipment, of the 91st Border Guard Det, FELSOECSATAR (P 48/C 58), was shipped to the railroad station of TORONY (P 48/C 68). A border guard said that the detachment was being moved to the Yugoslav border in the southern part of the Zala Comitate.
2. One sergeant of the 91st Border Guard Det, who had been in charge of investigation and identification, was transferred to the 96th Border Guard Det in SZENTPETERFA (P 48/C 67). He stated that several border guard detachments would be withdrawn from that area and their border sectors would be taken over by neighboring detachments.

20 October 1949

3. BUCSU (P 48/C 69) residents reported that the 90th Border Guard Det, BUCSU, and the 95th Border Guard Det, JAK (P 49/C 77), were withdrawn on 19 October 1949. Border guards had stated that their detachments would go to the Yugoslav border in the Zala Comitate.

Comment:

It is considered possible that border guard troops may have been withdrawn from the Hungarian-Austrian border and moved to the Hungarian-Yugoslav border, in connection with the Hungarian-Yugoslav border incidents.
